Course Purpose

Welcome to the Information Sharing Environment (ISE) course. The purpose of this course is to provide you with an understanding of the ISE and to promote a culture of information sharing across the ISE. This course consists of five modules, including this introduction. Each module concludes with a series of reflective questions. In addition to this course, you are also encouraged to take advantage of ISE training developed by your agency.

Audience

This course is designed as core training for people like you who work with terrorism information. Whether you are a new employee or a senior executive, you have a vital part to play in the success of the ISE.

Course Completion

This course will take approximately 30 minutes to complete.

Course Objectives

- Examine the importance of sharing terrorism information.
- Describe how Congress and the President have mandated greater sharing of terrorism information through the Information Sharing Environment (ISE), while maintaining or increasing information security and protecting privacy and civil liberties.
- Recognize that there are key interagency and intergovernmental efforts underway to promote terrorism information sharing across U.S. Government agencies.
- Promote information sharing activities.
